

OUR WORLDWIDE PROGRAM

Winter & Spring Judaic Studies Programs

תשס"ע 2011

Sign Up Now To Guarantee Preferred Dates!

Tu B'Shevat: Boreh P'ri HaEtz / Trees and Fruit in Art

Enhance the sweet theme of Tu B'Shevat with a program on masterpieces of trees and their fruit. Artists include Claude Monet, Henri Matisse, Vincent van Gogh and Paul Cezanne. Painting workshop.

Purim: Masks and Costumes

In the spirit of Purim, let's "unveil" the ideas and images of masks and costumes from around the world. Works include English armor, Chinese robes, African headdresses and Japanese fans. Maskmaking workshop.

Passover: K'ilo Yatzanu MiMitzrayim / The Art of Ancient Egypt

We will take our own trip down the Nile River through the study of ancient Egyptian art, architecture, and decorative arts. This is a perfect enhancement of the Parshiot in Breisheet and Shemot as well as the themes in the Passover Hagaddah. Egyptian painting workshop.

Yom HaAtzmaut: Israel – Her Story through Art

How do we characterize Israeli art? Join us as we delve into a discussion about the works of famous Israeli artists, including Anna Ticho, Leopold Krakauer, Jakob Steinhardt, Yitzhak Danziger, Marcel Janko, Josef Zaritsky and Yoram Gal. What influences did they bring with them from their own places of origin? How did they reflect the last 63 years of Israeli landscape, people, emotions, and politics? Printing workshop.

Yom HaAtzmaut: Contemporary Israeli Artists

A celebration of artists in Israel today. Choose one or all of the following artists: Shneur Herman (Microcalligraphy, Tzefat), Kamy Raviv (Tapestry Design, Ramat Gan), Marci Weisel (Papercuts and Watercolors, Alon Shvut), Yoram Gal (Watercolors, Old Yaffo).

A percentage of the fee for this program will be given back to the artists.

Workshop choices: Microcalligraphy, tapestry design, papercut/ watercolor collage, jewelry design, watercolor painting.

Creating museum programs for 16 years!

Join our page on facebook

Follow us on twitter Read our profile on LinkedIn

847.673.7370 • Lauren@MummiesAndMasterpieces.com
www.MummiesAndMasterpieces.com

